

The lies they told

We gave all we could spare to soldiers who came before you

We have had no food for ourselves for three days

It was a poor harvest .
Our beds are full.
We used the grain for feed.

We have too many mouths to fill. We have a sick father to care for.