

Day21 pp 178-191

Lapbook: Making Cheese Wheel. Put the pictures in the correct order and glue to the wheel.

Activity: Purchase a variety of cheeses from the store, or a cheese sample platter. Have an afternoon snack tasting different varieties of cheese. If you're really daring, you could even try to make your own.

http://cahe.nmsu.edu/pubs/_e/E-216.pdf

Day22 pp 200-211

Lapbook: Charley's Lie, color and fold this booklet into thirds. Learn the bible verse. Write the lie that Charley told on the inside. What can you learn from Charley?

Day 23 pp 212-228

Activity: Make a straw hat from butcher paper. You can find instructions online at http://www.hoover.nara.gov/LIW/activities_index.html

Lapbook: Nut varieies, Laura gathers different nuts from the woods. Color the nuts and fold and cut the book. If you can get some from your store, let your children taste the different flavors, and see the different textures of them. Write your findings inside.

Day24 pp 229-238

Lapbook: Seasons, think back on the story and try to remember something the ingalls family did for each season. The book starts out in Winter and goes all the way through Fall. Color the pictures and write something they did on the flaps.